Health Insurance – Courtesy Reminder

Changes to your health insurance must be made during open-enrollment unless you have what is known as a qualifying event. Qualifying events are defined by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) and include, but are not limited to, the following events:

- A change in marital status (marriage or divorce)
- The addition of dependent (by birth or adoption)
- The loss of insurance coverage due to a change in employment status
- The death of spouse or dependent
- The loss of dependent eligibility status (no longer of eligible age, upon attaining age 26)

If you experience a qualifying event, it is imperative that you notify Human Resources Department within 30 days of this event. Failure to notify HR within 30 days of a qualifying event will result in loss of eligibility to make applicable insurance election changes, as well as loss of eligibility. In these instances, you must then wait until the City’s next annual open enrollment period to make insurance election changes. In addition, if you are a newly hired employee and you fail to enroll within the 30 day deadline, this same rule will apply.....No Exceptions!
